LncRNA MALAT1 mediates gemcitabine resistance in pancreatic cancer cells. Drug resistance is a major impediment to pancreatic cancer treatment. Gemcitabine resistance is particularly troublesome because of its limited clinical success. Several molecular mechanisms have been implicated in gemcitabine resistance. Recently, lncRNAs have been implicated in the regulation of various cellular processes and cancer initiation and progression. Our study investigated whether lncRNAs are involved in gemcitabine resistance of pancreatic cancer cells. TUNEL assays were performed to confirm apoptosis of pancreatic cancer cells. KANSAS CITY, Mo. -- Kansas City Chiefs Pro Bowl left tackle Eric Fisher was cited for a minor marijuana possession violation Monday. No other information about the citation was immediately available. Fisher is scheduled to report to training camp on Wednesday. Fisher, who was the top overall pick in April's NFL draft, was suspended by the Chiefs in September for two games after his second arrest on marijuana-related charges. Fisher, 22, is facing two misdemeanor charges after trying to buy pot at a Starbucks in the Kansas City suburb of Olathe on June 18. Fisher was driving a rental vehicle when he was stopped by police on the way to a sandwich shop,
